

PRODUCT NOTICE

APEX
End of Life Reminder

Regions Affected: GLOBAL

Dear Colleagues

Further to the bulletin number 05-009 we are writing to remind you that the supply of all remaining spares and consumables for the Apex fixed gas transmitters will cease on 2nd December, 2019. At that time the product will be fully withdrawn from the catalogue and support for the product line will cease.

We have encountered an unexpected issue associated with one of the key materials that is used in the Apex transmitter, main PCB assembly and sensor assembly. As a result, these spares will be withdrawn from sale on 16th February, 2018. Therefore, it is important that all orders are placed by then. Please contact your Honeywell Analytics Representative if for further information.
